Small Business Enterprise Loans

Specific to Small Business Enterprises, these loans will be forgivable. It has been estimated that the federal government may need to supply up to $1.5 trillion in liquidity to businesses that employ 500 or fewer people if the COVID-19 crisis was to last three months.

Criteria and Premise to the SBE Loan Program includes these factors:

- Do not lay off employees (Furlough)
- Looser net operating loss-reduction rules that will allow businesses to offset more
- Delay in employer-side payroll taxes for Social Security until 2021 and 2022
- Sole proprietors and other self-employed workers eligible for expanded unemployment – insurance benefits
- Portion of the $425 billion in funds appropriated for the Federal Reserve's credit facilities will target small businesses
- SBA loans extend forgiveness to firms that used loaned funds for payroll, rent, mortgage interest and utility payments.
- Loans will be administered by banks and other lenders to speed up the process
- Eligible to receive up to $10M based on how much the company paid its employees between January 1 and February 29.
- Loans will carry an interest rate up to 4%.
- If the business uses the loan funds for the approved purposes and maintains the average size of its full-time workforce based on when it received the loan, the principle of the loan will be forgiven. Only interest will be obligated to be paid back. (400K on 10M annually).
