If you are having trouble viewing this email, read the online version.

Brought to you by:

Janet Ragan

Assistant Vice President Alliant Insurance Services, Inc.

D 949-660-8179 E jragan@alliant.com alliant.com

Dear:

The latest issue of In The Public Eye has arrived. If you have any questions about the articles in this issue or have any other insurance related questions, please feel free to contact me.

PUBLIC ENTITY

California Taking Steps to Reopen Businesses, Public Spaces

Insurance Journal

Seal Beach in northern Orange County allowed running, walking and surfing starting at sunrise. "The beaches are open and so far there have been no issues at all," said police Sqt. Nick Nicholas, who added that officers and lifeguards would be patrolling to make sure people follow the rules.

Read more...

NEWS

Amid Unemployment Surge, Millions of Remote and Essential Workers Plug Away

Insurance Journal

Garbage haulers still collect trash. Cops are on the beat. Couriers deliver food and packages. Insurance agents work from home.

IN THE BROKER'S CORNER

Hospital All Risk Property Program (HARPP)

Alliant

There is nothing simple about providing high levels of medical care, and the property exposures hospitals face is also quite complex. Alliant's Hospital All Risk Property

Read more...

Program (HARPP) is one of the largest joint purchase groups in the world. It is a powerful layer of protection hospitals can use to financially shield themselves from everything from critical machinery failure to environmental liability.

Read more...

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY & CASUALTY

Uncle Sam's Promise

Leaders Edge

Reauthorization is all well and good, but the U.S. terrorism-loss backstop has yet to be tested.

The economic impact of COVID-19, the disease associated with the new coronavirus, has put the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act (TRIA) in the spotlight.

Read more...

FINANCIAL SECURITY

Coronavirus to Accelerate Social Security, Medicare Depletion Dates, U.S. Officials Say

Reuters

WASHINGTON - Job and revenue losses prompted by the coronavirus will likely accelerate the depletion of Social Security and Medicare reserves, U.S. officials said on Wednesday as they released reports showing little change in the federal benefit programs' pre-pandemic finances.

Read more...

MANAGEASE

Coronavirus: How Can Employers Manage This Fast-Changing Situation ManagEase

The subject on top of everyone's mind right now is the coronavirus. What is happening,

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Staying Active During the Coronavirus Pandemic

Exercise Is Medicine

The coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic can make it challenging to maintain a physically active lifestyle. COVID-19 is spread by someone sneezing or coughing into the air or onto a surface, and then the virus enters and infects a new person through their mouth, nose or eyes.

Read more...

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

Maryland Insurance Administration Warns Against COVID-19 Insurance Scams

Insurance Journal

Maryland Insurance Commissioner Al Redmer Jr. has warned consumers to watch for insurance scams related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Reports of pandemic-related fraud are increasing around the country, according to a press release issued by the Maryland Insurance Administration.

Read more...

what does it mean for employers, how bad is it going to get? While no one has all the answers at this point, there are things that employers can do and should be thinking about to protect their employees and their businesses.

Read more...

Questions, comments, or suggestions? We want to hear them! Click here to share your thoughts.

